The praise speaks volumes: "I was about to conquer the rest of the world when I picked up The Art Of Putzing. Made for a nice day of lounging around the yurt instead." - Genghis Khan, Mongol Emperor "A book so compelling that I'm going to read it another day." - Scarlett O'Hara, Dressmaker "To say this tome doesn't do much is to capture its very joy and essence." - Cicero, Roman Scribbler "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Putzing? Why didn't I think of that?" - Thomas Jefferson, Gardener 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Relax and enjoy while reading the The art of Putzing. I know I did! By rregensburg It's really one of a kind . The title itself makes you smile . It's funny and so true . The art of putzing makes a great gift!! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. New Book To Rescue You From Retirement By Michelle Mooney Customer Because I am retired, I haven't had the time to order this book much less read it. But knowing John Hickey I know that it will be completely devoid of anything earth shattering and worthwhile, but charming and a really good read! I promise, I will get around to order and read it after the New Year. Michelle Mooney

About 10,000 people retire every day. That's about 4 million potential Putzers every year who are abandoning the endless pursuit of pursuits to adopt a life centered on the freedom of doing nothing. Colleagues, friends and relatives of these budding Putzers will need an appropriate retirement gift to show they really care. The Art Of Putzing is more reliable and cheaper than a gold watch! Guided by Professor H. Ernst Angstrom's humor and literary wisdom, the Putzer in your life will be doing nothing in no time at all without even realizing they're doing it. The golden years, or any age really, is a ripe time to reclaim your inalienable right to goof off without feeling guilty about it.
